Synopsis

Essential resource for top-line data and analysis covering the Greece aerospace & defense market. Includes market size and segmentation data, textual and graphical analysis of market growth trends, leading companies and macroeconomic information.

Key Highlights

The aerospace & defense market consists of civil and military aerospace and defense procurements.

The Greek aerospace & defense market had total revenues of $3.0bn in 2016, representing a compound annual rate of change (CARC) of -0.3% between 2012 and 2016.

The civil aerospace segment was the market's most lucrative in 2016, with total revenues of $2.5bn, equivalent to 83.2% of the market's overall value.

Greece is one of the few countries in NATO that meets or exceeds its 2% of GDP spending target, with an estimated 2.38% of real GDP (based on 2010 prices) according to NATO figures. However, by the same NATO estimates over 73% of the budget went on personnel expenditure rather than equipment. Historical relations with Turkey are one of the primary factors for defense being spared the brunt of the brutal government cuts implemented
